Scholarships

CARR SCHOLARSHIPS
angelo.edu/carr

The Carr Scholarship is an academic scholarship awarded based on a student's high school academic performance and test scores. The program is funded by a $131 million endowment, one of the largest at a regional university in the U.S. Awards are renewable for up to four years for qualified ASU students.

HONORS PROGRAM
325-942-2722
angelo.edu/honors

Students accepted into ASU's Honors Program qualify for an additional $3,000 scholarship per year. Honors qualifications include competitive class ranking, demonstration of extracurricular school and/or community activities, and a score of 1260 or higher on the SAT (evidence-based reading & writing and math), or 27 or higher on the ACT.

SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAMS
325-942-2777
angelo.edu/scholarships

ASU also offers departmental and organizational scholarships. In addition, ASU manages and awards scholarships from many outside organizations. These scholarships have varying eligibility requirements. To apply, complete the General Scholarship Application that opens on Oct. 1 with a priority deadline of March 15. Admitted students should apply early as most scholarships are highly competitive.

Carr Scholars are high-achieving students who are leaders in and often outside the classroom.
